New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Until further notice, store will open at 8:30 a.m. and close at 5:30 p. m.

Friday'll Be a Special Remnant Day.

N this day all broken assortments, odd lots, short lengths, remnants from whatsoever cause, are offered at prices very much below their intrinsic value. There is no place in our stock for merchandise that is not absolutely perfect and that does not furnish a satisfactory assortment. Remnants are the natural consequence of healthy trade, and we take this method of clearance. The saving to be effected is very material, and in most instances the items are perfect. All remnants are plainly marked and the original prices at which sold noted upon the tickets. Every department throughout the store offers items of interest to careful buyers, and the collection for tomorrow is particularly interesting.

The True Retirement Principle.

In your Sunday edition, January 9, 1910. your masterly article on "The True Retirement Principle" brings out most forcibly the danger of flagrant injustice being done the clerk by basing the ratio of per cent retirement pay upon the salary received at the time of retirement. Estate of John W. Langdale; will ad- In a case in point, a clerk having drawn mitted to probate and letters testa- $1,200 for twenty-three years and working all that time in the $1,400 and $1,600 grades, two years ago was reduced to After the sacrifice of one-half of a life time to the government service, broken in health by overstrain, as certified to by the chief, declared for many years to have been the hardest worker in the di-vision, recommended for higher honors which had to be declined on account of broken health-to think of retiring such a case on 11/2 per cent of the lowest salary received (and that for a period of two years only) seems crushing in the extreme.
